CRIMSON CIRCLE

Tobias, March 7, 2009

It is difficult and challenging and nothing seems to work anymore. The old tricks and the old tools are out the door, but what replaces them? We have everything before us, as Dickens said. We have every tool, every resource, every solution and every answer before us, because we placed them there in a very multidimensional way.

Tobias, March 7, 2009

We have nothing before us. We have nothing at the table, because we tend to go back into history and back into time to pull what we have learned before and bring that to the table in times of despair and challenge. But they don't work. They aren't valid anymore. Everything that is at the table right now – all of the gifts and abundance and tools and wisdom and hope – come from the new.

Tobias, March 7, 2009

Dear Shaumbra, the next several years are going to be so challenging and so difficult for some, and so easy and so sacred and blessed for others. You're going to have days when there is tremendous hope, and you're going to have days of despair. You're going to have days of light and days of dark. There will be times when the closest and the dearest ones in your life are going to betray you. And it doesn't matter.

Tobias, March 7, 2009

There are going to be times in your life where you are marvelously abundant and where everything seems to be flowing , and there are going to be times when some of you are going to lose everything you thought you had. And it doesn't matter.

Tobias, March 7, 2009

Many of you are going to go through the deepest and most challenging and the darkest spiritual crisis you have ever had in any lifetime on Earth – a spiritual crisis unlike any other. And at the same time you're going to have spiritual enlightenment – an enlightenment of yourself, of consciousness, of you – like you've never experienced before. And it doesn't matter.

Tobias, March 7, 2009

You're going to have experiences in your life when the days seem so dark and other days seem so bright. You're experiencing the best of times and the worst of times while you are in this body. And it doesn't matter.

Tobias, March 7, 2009

We told this group (in Egypt) that it doesn't matter at all. We could feel a sense of sorrow and sadness and disbelief amongst this group – “What do you mean, Tobias?” I could hear some of them saying. “What do you mean it doesn't matter? I'm supposed to be here on Earth right now because it matters. I'm supposed to be a Standard of New Energy because it matters. I'm on a mission. “I lost everything along the way, I don't know what I'm doing, I don't even know who I am, but it's a hell of a mission, Tobias. What do you mean it doesn't matter?””

Tobias, March 7, 2009

You crossed through the Wall of Fire and experienced all of the potentials of every lifetime, physical and nonphysical, of everything you would ever think, everything you would ever do and all of its subpotentials and their subpotentials. You had already arrived. So it really doesn't matter. It doesn't matter at all.

Tobias, March 7, 2009

Go through your games and go through your processes because you're going to turn out just fine. I can say that. I've walked a few miles in your sandals. I know what it's like to come to that point of absolute oneness with Self, absolute love with Self, falling in love with yourself, where you suddenly realize "It doesn't matter. I Am That I Am. I always have been, always will be. It doesn't matter."

Tobias, March 7, 2009

So I ask each one of you today: why are you here? What is it that you choose? If you've already arrived, if you're already in your ascension, then what it is that you're here for? Can you be here on Earth right now as yourself – just because? Just because? What a grand and marvelous thing it is for a creator to do it, just because, just for the experience.

Tobias, March 7, 2009

You don't get points on the other side for the total number of experiences that you've had, for the difficulty and the challenges of experience. You're only admired for the depth and for the compassion of the experience with yourself. That's all that matters. There are angelic beings who have never been in human form – and they are absolutely intrigued by any angel who's been to Earth. It shows in your colors.

Tobias, March 7, 2009

And we're going to arm wrestle about this for a while until you finally, finally one day laugh and say, "Oh Tobias, I wish you'd told me way back when when I was in the heat of my despair and the depths of my agony, I wish you would have said to me, Tobias, 'It doesn't matter.' And then I would have let go of that little game I was playing, and then I would have stopped blaming everyone. Then I would had a big smile and said, 'What a grand experience I'm having on Earth right now – the illusion of things falling apart when they're really coming together.'"
